Hosts to County Farm
Youths Tomorrow

More than 1,000 farm youths between the ages of 10 and 20 are expected to swarm into Joliet tomorrow, February 24, to "see the town". They will be the guests of the businessmen and industrialists of that city under sponsorship of the Joliet Association of Commerce. And they've got a full day ahead of them.

Expected in town shortly after 8 a. m., the youths will assemble at 9 a. m. for a program of movies and information on 4H and the part farm youth should play in their communities.

After a parade through the city's business district, the youths will be served lunch at the Joliet township high school and then be conducted on tours of two or three factories, business or newspaper plants. Their hosts will be the business men who run those plants.

They'll be given a free day from school to attend the program in Joliet. Louis Bottino, county superintendent of schools said in a letter last week to faculty members of all schools under his jurisdiction. Transportation by private cars was organized with an adult leader and a member of 4H accompanying each carload of kids all day long. The program winds up at about 4:30 p. m. in order to get the kids back home before its dark—and in time for dinner.

Part of a program to cement good relations between the businessmen and the farmer, the "field-day" for the kids is part of a two-day affair. The previous day, on Wednesday evening, parents of the children sat down at a dinner table in Joliet with the business men of the city to "discuss their common problems." The dinner was the third annual Ag-Industry banquet in Joliet, sponsored jointly by the Will county Farm Bureau and the Association of Commerce.

Walter O. Hershbach, corporation counsel for Joliet, is general chairman for both events and chairman of the Association's Ag-Industry committee.

Here are the men he's appointed to carry out the program: Louis Bottino and Wayne Churchill, executive of the Will County Farm Bureau, attendees; Fred Monroe and George Beutel, hosts; Don Harper, noon program; Ralph Taylor, general chairman for the youths' day; Harry Swaney, Ag-Industry banquet.

Speakers for the banquet were Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, representing Agriculture, and E. H. McDermott, vice president of the State Chamber of Commerce, representing business.

Fox Hunters Needed

The Frankfort Sportsmen's club will conduct a fox hunt this Sunday, February 27 starting at 10 a. m. from the village hall in Frankfort. They will return at noon for lunch, and out again in the afternoon to try to get those seven foxes which got away from them at their last hunt.

MOKENA CIVIC ASSO. ANNOUNCES
LAND PURCHASE FOR RECREATIONMoney Derived From Annual Celebration
To Finance New Community CenterTRUCKS CHECKED
AT NEW LENOX
FOR OVERLOADING

New Lenox has been a very busy village for the past several weeks, as there were many trucks standing along the highway. It all came about when Chief Harry I. Curtis of the state highway police declared an enforcement drive against overloaded trucks.

New Lenox was one of the stations and all trucks were halted and compelled to be weighed at the Dale and Paul Service station.

One fine of $100 was imposed in the court of Justice Mevin Whittaker and was paid in behalf of Fred Wilmette, a driver for the National Cartage company of Joliet. Wilmette was charged with operating an overloaded truck. He was not in court but was represented by a Chicago agent from the Elchberger Transit company of York, Pa. who paid the fine.

Wilmette moved an overloaded Elchberger trailer on request of the firm. It was reported that one "Smoky" Orwing of York, Pa., original driver of the Elchberger truck was enroute to Joliet with wallpaper for the United Wallpaper company. At Paul and Dale's station at New Lenox he had for gasoline and noted that the state police were weighing trucks.

Knowing he had an overload, he unhitched the tractor, left the trailer there and returned to York, Pa.

State police noting the trailer, checked with the station attendant and learned the details. They posted a 24-hour watch on the trailer only to learn that "Smoky" was back in Pennsylvania and that the National Cartage company had been asked to move the truck.

All voters living in this district are urged to attend. The meeting which starts at 8 o'clock, will be addressed by Wiley Simmons, assistant county superintendent of Cook county schools. He will speak on the recommendations as made by the Cook county school survey committee. An opportunity will be given to anyone desiring to ask questions, which he will endeavor to answer.

ANNUAL FARM LOAN MEETING

The annual meeting of the National Farm Loan association of Joliet will be held in the YMCA tomorrow, February 25 at one o'clock. A report of the year's business will be given as well as directors elected. There will be entertainment and refreshments.

The old saying, that a man is as good as his word still holds good today, even though it seems that many people do not pay any attention to that old saying, any more. But when we do find those who hold their word sacred, we know that man is a good man.

Not too many years ago—to be exact—it was in 1942, that the Mokena Civic association, made a promise, and gave their word, that the money they derived from the Mokena Homecomings would be used for a memorial for all Mokena veterans. A committee was appointed at that time by the president, consisting of Alfred Hatch, Robert Schlacks and George Kreml, to investigate and purchase, after approval by the association members, a plot of ground for this Memorial. These men have since that time been keeping their eye on that goal, and at the meeting of the Association February 16, they reported that the land has been secured. There are one or two minor details to be completed.

The land, amounting to a little over three acres, is located on the corner of Union and Revere streets in the McIntosh subdivision, east of Wolf road. It has been purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Marti and consists of 11 lots. The plan is to develop it into a recreation center—baseball diamond, tennis court, etc., for use of all.

We congratulate the members of the Mokena Civic association, and therefore, because they have kept their word, they must be a good Association. They have proved that their word is as good as their bond.

They have had some rough years, behind them—some lost faith in their promise—the war seemed to take the spirit out of workers so that it seems at times that perhaps it was not worth while. But now all are pulling together and our has are off to this group. There is yet much to be done in the years to come, to develop this plot into a complete recreation spot. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and push.

An opportunity will be given for that, this summer, for at the meeting February 16, the dates were set for the annual homecoming are August 19, 20, and 21.

Also at the meeting last Wednesday evening, Mr. Art Kelly, of Joliet, and Mr. Henry Friborg of Chicago, were present. Mr. Kelly is District Governor of the Lions International and Mr. Friborg is Representative of the Lions. They explained Lionsism which was received. Enough interest was shown so that a meeting has been called for this Friday night, February 25 at 8 o'clock in the Hatch hall, to further discuss the matter and find out how many would like to have a Lion's club in Mokena.

AUXILIARY CARD PARTY

The regular card party given by the Auxiliary to the William Martin post VFW will be held this Saturday evening, February 26, at 8:30 o'clock in the Hatch hall, Mokena.

Fashion details of the bride's gown of heavy ivory satin were an illusion neckline of chantilly lace, a wide ruffe of chantilly lace, a fitted bodice and long tight fitting sleeves tapered to points at the wrist. The scalloped hemline of the bouffant skirt revealed a lace ruffled hoop skirt. The cathedral train was edged in matching lace.

A bonnet of satin and Belgium lace which the bride's aunt, Mrs. Margaret DeVoy of New York was on her wedding day, held in place the fingertip veil of French illusion net. The bride wore an heirloom pearl and diamond lavalier which belonged to her mother. Her only jewelry was a watch, a gift of the groom. She carried a white rosary and prayer book, a gift of Rev. Miller. The prayer book was adorned with a single white orchid and sprays of stephanotis.

The maid of honor was attired in a colonial gown of mauve taffeta that possessed a scalloped neckline, fitted bodice and tiny sleeves. The swagged hemline of the dress revealed a hooped skirt. Miss Formento's bonnet was of matching shirred taffeta made with wisps of mauve maline framing the bonnet and tied under the chin. She carried a shirred taffeta muf edged with mauve maline. Her flowers were white camellias surrounded by stephanotis. Miss Clementi and Miss Raddatz were gowned exactly like the maid of honor. They carried bouquets of white gardenias and stephanotis. Each attendant wore a rhinestone necklace, the gift of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Formento chose an ice blue crepe dress styled with long sleeves and a side drape. She wore a pink flowered hat and a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Schneider wore an aqua crepe dress, with a shirred bodice and long sleeves. Her accessories were brown and her corsage was also of pink roses.

The wedding dinner was served at 12 o'clock in the Woodruff hotel followed by a reception from 2 until 6 o'clock in the Terrace room of the hotel. More than 350 relatives and friends greeted the young couple. The bride's table was appointed with a wedding cake encircled with white carnations and flanked by huckleberry foliage and tall white tapers in crystal candelabra.

Miss Bette Meyer, Mrs. D. R. Burd, Mrs. J. A. Pirc, Jr. and Miss Faye Raddatz assisted in the serving.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will reside in their home on Spencer road, New Lenox. For traveling the new Mrs. Berens wore a Brisl blue suit, white accessories and a pink camellia corsage.

Section 10. While the bonds authorized hereunder or any of them remain outstanding or unpaid, rates charged for water and sewerage service shall be sufficient at all times to pay the cost of operation and maintenance, to provide a depreciation fund, and to pay the interest of and the principal on the waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds issued hereunder. And there shall be charged against all users of said combined water and sewerage service, including the Village of Tinley Park, such rates and amount for water and sewerage service as shall be adequate to meet the requirements of this section. Compensation for service rendered the Village shall be charged against the Village and payment for the same from the corporate fund shall be made monthly into the waterworks and sewerage fund created by this ordinance in the same manner as other revenues are required to be deposited.

Section 11. Any holder of a bond or bonds or any of the coupons of any bond or bonds issued hereunder may either in law or equity, by suit, mandamus or other proceedings, endorse or compel performance of all duties required by this ordinance, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates for water and sewerage service and application of income and revenue therefrom.

Section 12. That the Village of Tinley Park hereby covenants and agrees that while any Waterworks and Sewerage Revenue Bonds issued hereunder are outstanding additional revenue bonds sharing ratably and equally in the revenues to be derived from the operation of said combined system shall not be issued, except that the right is hereby reserved to issue, for the purpose of making improvements to and extensions of the combined system, additional revenue bonds that share ratably and equally in such revenue whenever it is shown by the earnings of said combined system for each of the three (3) fiscal years then next preceding the date of issuance of such additional bonds were sufficient to pay all costs of operation and maintenance of the combined system and leave a balance equal to at least one hundred thirty per cent (130%) of the aggregate of the maximum principal and interest requirements for any year thereafter on bonds of the issue herein authorized then outstanding and on the proposed additional revenue bonds exclusive of any reserve for interest, provided, however, additional bonds may be issued to share ratably and equally in the revenues derived from the operation of said combined waterworks and sewerage system regardless of a subsequent date of issue or authorization for the purpose of completing the improvements and extensions provided for by this ordinance, in accordance with plans and specifications therefor now on file in the office of the Village Clerk for public inspection, in the event the proceeds derived from the sale of the bonds authorized under this ordinance are not sufficient to pay the cost of completing said improvements and extensions; provided that if additional bonds are to be issued for the purpose of completing and paying the cost of the improvements and extensions herein provided, preliminary to the adoption of any ordinance for the issue of any of such bonds, there shall be prepared and submitted to the President and Board of Trustees of the Village, by the engineers employed by the Village for that purpose, a certificate to show the total amount of work completed to date, the total cost thereof, the total amount of work to be completed, and the estimated cost of completion thereof, and said certificate shall be approved by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village and filed in the office of the Village Clerk for public inspection.

Section 13. That the Village of Tinley Park hereby covenants and agrees with the holder or holders of the bonds herein proposed to be issued, or any of them, that it will punctually perform all duties with reference to said combined waterworks and sewerage system required by the Constitution and laws of the State of Illinois, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates for water and sewerage service, and segregating the revenues of said combined system and the application of the respective funds created by this ordinance, and it hereby covenants and agrees not to sell, lease, loan, mortgage or in any manner dispose of said combined waterworks and sewerage system, including any and all extensions and improvements that may be made thereto until all of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, or unless and until provision shall have been made for the payment of all such bonds and interest thereon in full; and the Village further covenants and agrees with the holders of said bonds to maintain in good condition and continuously operate said combined waterworks and sewerage system.

Section 14. Provisions of this ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Village of Tinley Park and the holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, and after the issuance of the bonds, no changes, additions or alterations of any kind shall be made hereto in any manner except in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, or until such time as all of said bonds issued hereunder and the interest thereon shall be paid in full, or unless and until provision shall have been made for the payment of all such bonds and interest thereon in full.

Section 15. That from the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds hereby authorized, the sum of $217,000 shall be used for the construction of the improvements and extensions to the combined waterworks and sewerage system, in accordance with plans and specifications therefor, prepared for that purpose, and now on file in the office of the Village Clerk and open to the inspection of the public, except that the sum of Forty-four Hundred ($44,000) Dollars shall be set aside from the proceeds of the sale of said bonds to pay interest due November 1, 1949, being the estimated time for completion of the improvements provided for by this ordinance.

Section 16. The books of the Village Treasurer shall show the amount of money received from the proceeds of said bonds, and the expenditure of such funds for the purposes set out in this ordinance upon estimates and bills to be approved by the President and Board of Trustees, except as hereinafter otherwise provided.

Section 17. Said waterworks and sewerage fund and accounts, both of the Village Collector and Village Treasurer, shall be audited at least once in each year by a recognized certified public accountant, and such audit and account shall be open for inspection at all proper times to any taxpayer, or user of said combined waterworks and sewerage system, or any holder of bonds issued under the provisions of this ordinance, or any one acting for or on behalf of such taxpayer, user, or bondholder. Reports of the operation of the combined system shall be furnished the President and Board of Trustees monthly, and copies of the same shall be furnished to any bondholder upon request.

Section 18. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not effect any of the other provisions of this ordinance.

Section 19. In the event the amount of bonds issued is less than the aggregate amount herein authorized, the amounts to be set aside in the waterworks and sewerage fund to be used for the purpose of paying principal and interest of waterworks and sewerage revenue bonds, as provided in Section 9 hereof, shall be reduced proportionately.

Section 20. This ordinance after its passage and approval by the President and Board of Trustees shall be published in the Tinley Park Times, a newspaper published and of general circulation in said Village, and if no petition is filed with the Clerk of said Village within ten (10) days after the publication of this ordinance, by fifteen per cent (15%) of the number of voters voting for President of the Board of Trustees at the last preceding general election requesting the submission of the proposition of making the improvements and extensions, and issuing the bonds herein provided for to the voters of said Village, then this ordinance shall be in full force and effect.

Section 21. All ordinances, resolutions or orders or parts thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are to the extent of such conflict hereby repealed.

Section 22. That as soon after this ordinance becomes effective as may be, said bonds shall be executed by the officials of said Village, as herein provided, and be deposited with the Treasurer of said Village and be by said Treasurer delivered to the purchaser thereof, upon receipt of the purchase price thereof, same being subject to the contract for sale heretofore entered into, said contract being in all respects ratified and approved.

99% SCHEDULED FARMS NOW HAVE ELEC. SERVICE

The farm electrification program of the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, launched more than 20 years ago, was virtually completed during 1948 with 31,643 or 99.5 per cent of the 31,799 farms in the company's 6200 square-mile service area having electricity available at the end of the year.

This has been announced by Britton I. Budd, president of the utility, who reported that 922 additional rural establishments were connected to the company's rural electric network during the year.

As a result, on December 31 only

156 farms were still beyond present power lines. Extensions are now being built to bring electricity to 35 of these which have recently contracted for service, he said.

Farmers are using more electricity than ever before. Average use per farm was 3,622 kilowatt hours during 1948, an increase of 427 over the year previous.

"But even more important," Budd added, "new and better ways constantly are being devised for speeding farm production and farm chores through use of electric power."

New electric work-saving equipment listed by Budd as accounting for part of the growing use of power on northern Illinois farms included crop dryers, barn cleaners, silo unloaders, milk house heaters, and domestic milk pasteurizers.

At the end of 1948, the company had 7,385 circuit miles of rural electric lines in service.

Politicians Settling Down To Practical Things Again

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON. — With the mighty fanfare of the Democrats on inauguration day a fading memory and even the brave words of the Republicans on Lincoln Day less than a whisper out of the past, the practical politicians on both sides of the aisles in the house and senate are hard at their practical politicking.

The sudden re-entrance of Governor Dewey on the political scene was something that took many of his fellow Republicans by surprise. Nevertheless, it would seem that many who don't like him because he lost last November and others who didn't like him enough to help him win last November, are willing to change their minds and really work for his election to the senate in 1950. They think he has a chance for the seat which Senator Wagner has held so long.

There is a tendency on the part of Democrats to shrug off this distant possibility with "Dewey can't do that either!"

right, might shake-up hits probe committee

To take on Senator Wagner in his prime would have been no small venture. But since the aging Senator from New York has been ill for such a long period it is taken for granted that he will not run again in 1950. It is suggested that perhaps his son, an up and coming young man in his own attempt to fill his father's shoes.

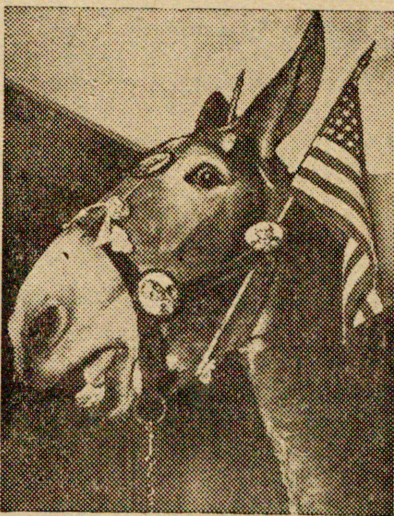

That is always good political practice, for more than one candidate with a former hero's name, has been swept into office by voters who either didn't know their idol had departed or else thought a candidate by any other name couldn't smell as sweet. It was often declared that a number of old-timers had a vague feeling that FDR and TR were, if not the same, at least approximately the same person.

Meanwhile the Republicans are rapidly solidifying their forces for a concentrated battle over the repeal of the Taft-Hartley bill, and the way the atmosphere feels at this writing, Republican senators are offering the nearest thing to a filibuster that can be offered without actually being labelled one. Senator Pepper called it that from the start.

April is contract day for a good many unions and the race is to get the Taft-Hartley act off the books before then. If the Republicans can keep on amending and arguing past that date, it will be a distinct, if only temporary, victory for them.

It must have been quite a shock for the labor leaders to learn that the administration didn't think that labor won the election. Labor did a tremendous job for Truman, put in a lot of hard, fast cooperative work, dovetailing their programs with the efforts of the regular party workers.

But one Harry Truman did a lot of work, all by himself. When the A. F. of L. and CIO heads came down to Washington early in January

INAUGURAL COLOR FADES

Back to practical politicking

laying their demands on the line they were somewhat annoyed to find a number of top Democrats polite, grateful and gracious, but also just a little coy.

Newsman outside one office door when an A. F. of L. delegation was waiting for members of Senator Thomas' labor and public welfare committee, heard much desk-pounding and one voice was strong enough to penetrate the thick paneling:

"We went up and down the country ballyhooing for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley act. And that's what we want now."

But the practical politicians in the house and the senate knew they were facing the fight of their lives. They knew they could count on some Republican support, but only if they sent down a bill which had something in it beside straight repeal. That is why the administration ordered a "one-package" measure, one that contained certain positive provisions. The unions were willing to let the old Wagner act come back into force, but the administration knew that was the wrong approach since there was considerable popular sentiment against undoing all that had been done in the way of scotching strikes.

Shake-Up Hits Probe Committee

One of the interesting changes wrought by the election was the re-organization of the un-American activities committee. This strange child, born of a desire of one Democratic congressman to check Nazi and anti-Jewish activity in this country back in the days of Hitler had become a problem child for the administration.

The father of the idea (it was a New York congressman), saw his offspring kidnapped at birth. It was seized by Republican Hamilton Fish of New York and later by Rep. Martin Dies of Texas and brought up in quite a different manner from what was intended.

The Democrats were pretty embarrassed with the committee before Dies was through with it, and when he decided to withdraw from the Washington scene they tried to squelch it but failed. It had proved too good a headline-getter for its members. Then along came the Republicans in 1946 and grabbed it, making it one of the administration's number one headaches.

As soon as Democrats returned to power they saw to it that the committee, now an accepted institution, was cleaned up. By one twist and another, they managed to eliminate all of the old members but one, Representative Wood, who is chairman. Membership was limited to lawyers, which was logical enough, for its faults were those which no honest lawyer would condone, and it was reformed to recognize civil rights and to conform to some of the fundamental principles of justice and civil rights with which the original organization scorned to bother. Witnesses are now permitted to give their side of the case, be represented by counsel if they desire.

Nothing has been done to hamper its effectiveness, and it should be able to render a real service from now on. As Rep. John McSweeney (D., Ohio) one of the new members, said: "The spy hunt should be carried to a logical conclusion, but I will not permit innocent men and women to have their names and characters besmirched by unfounded and unsupported accusations."

The un-American activities committee, as it was run before it was cleaned up, was an institution which simply could not continue to exist in America. It used methods which Americans will not tolerate, because if there is one thing an American demands, it is the right to be considered innocent until he is proved guilty. "Who steals my purse steals my trash. . . but he that filches my good name robs me of that which not enriches him and makes me poor indeed."

Commies at Work In Irvied Halls

One of the jobs which the committee under J. Parnell Thomas, was preparing to do was to investigate communism in American colleges. That sent the universities and colleges into jitters for fear academic freedom would be throttled as other freedoms had been by the fanatical members of the old group. However, there is no reason at all why a judicial investigation of this particular subject shouldn't be undertaken.

Canada received a distinct shock recently from Dr. Watson Kirkconnell, president of Acadia university. He made an analysis of the report of the Labor Progressive Party university students conference at Toronto last fall which was published by the SATURDAY NIGHT, a weekly magazine published in Toronto.

The report is a 14,000 word document which presents the Communists' own views on their position, in Canadian universities. It reveals, according to Dr. Kirkconnell, that there are militant Communist "nuclei" on the campuses at McGill, Toronto, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton, and Vancouver, all under rigid party discipline.

There are known to be a number of similar groups, doubtless working with the same party techniques, in this country. In some places they are considerably weaker than they used to be.

Dr. Maier Says Too Many Psychologists

Religious radio messages penetrating the Iron Curtain will be of mighty help in assisting the Christian Faith in Communist-controlled countries, Dr. Walter A. Maier, radio speaker for the Lutheran Hour, declared February 6 on his international broadcast. He announced the addition of programs in the Bulgarian language, which are to emanate from Radio Luxembourg and asked his listeners to pray that these radio appeals will be a blessed factor in keeping the Gospel truth alive in the heart of the Balkan Christians.

This makes the fifth behind the Iron Curtain language the 1100-station Lutheran Hour uses. The others are Russian, Polish, Slovak and Hungarian. The letters he receives in these languages, especially the Russian, Dr. Maier said, are marked by tears of gladness and warmest double expressions of gratitude. Many D. P.'s and political exiles write him they have not heard the Gospel in their own language for eight years. Repeatedly, these European listeners request a Bible and prayer book in Russian or their native tongue. Such communications, the radio speaker concluded, show that the solution to the problem of human suffering must be found in a return to God and in trust of His truth. He declared the Bible not only a good Book, not only a better Book than any our day has produced, not only the best Book men have ever seen, but God's errorless truth, the only Book which offers them complete cure for life's trouble as it points to God's love in Jesus Christ, and repeatedly assures: "All things work together for good to them that love God."

"To understand the mystery of sorrows we can not find help in godless men, puffed up in their own pride, who speak of good luck and bad as they make life a source of accidents and men the haphazard creatures of chance. We cannot find guidance and truth in any plans of psychiatry and psychoanalysis which set the Almighty aside. The number of so-called psychological experts now deceiving the American public has been estimated at 25,000. Yet no one can measure the misery of suicide and insanity which has followed their deception. The pessimistic philosopher Schopenhauer who, rejecting Christ, claimed that the world was his own will, was so cantankerous that he could not live with his own mother or relatives and had to be cut off from all contact with them. Peaceless, he constantly slept with a revolver under his pillow. Yet the Christian, with only average culture and schooling, can have joy in his home, peace in his heart and sleep soundly."

Hibernating animals will sometimes die if they are awakened roughly, the World Book Encyclopedia says. Animals that sleep throughout the winter breathe very slowly, and their hearts scarcely beat.

"Sm-o-o-o" New Word For Teen-Ager Style

SM-O-O new word 1-14 jj etnia o Fashions for teen-agers are definitely "sm-o-o-o."

What's the translation of this popular, catchy word? "Sm-o-o-o" means smoother and was coined by the Bobbie Fashion Board, a group of fashion-conscious teen-agers, who met in Chicago recently and decided it was up to them to name the new neater, trimmer, slimmer look which is "the '49 look for the high school girl."

Big sister has the new look, brother the bold look, and some comic strip fans have the big stare, but no one, the Junior fashion advisory group observed, had ventured to name the teen-agers fashion look. Gone are the days of the bulky ballerina look, the sloppy joe look, and the borrowed-from-brother look, and the "sm-o-o-o" look, teensters agreed, is here to stay.

Bobbie Board members, who were selected by The Formfit Company for their interest in fashions, described the "sm-o-o-o" look as "the emphasis on the youthful curved figure with slim lines, instead of hiding the figure under an oversize sweater, tent-like boy's shirt, or flowing, gathered ankle-length skirt."

From top to toe, the "sm-o-o-o" look is:

1. Short hair do, well brushed and always clean.
2. Clean, clear skin with a minimum of make-up, deftly applied.
3. Small, neat hat—worn more often.
4. Tiny look in accessories, including pearl chokers, scatter-pins, scarves, bags and belts.
5. A dress with a small collar, tiny buttons, molded bodice, and pert bustle or peplum for date-time wear, emphasizing a slim, neat waist.
6. A fitted sweater or wool jersey blouse worn with pencil slim, long skirt for school wear.
7. The neater, trimmer look in shoes: wearing hose and flats for school and the closed toe and heel opera pump for dates.
8. And dressy gloves, the "shorty" kind in white kid, suede, and cotton.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 5:5-7. DEVOTIONAL READING: Matthew 13:44-53.

Ideal World

Lesson for February 27, 1949

ANY MAN with a revolutionary new idea has to try to explain it. Jesus was no exception. As a young teacher of religion, he had to answer the question which older teachers were bound to put to him: If your teaching is new, how can it be true? And if it is true, what can be new about it? This was a fair question. The Sermon on the Mount is Jesus' answer to it. The main theme of that sermon is the kingdom of God, an ancient phrase but with new meanings as Jesus used it. We can say "The Ideal World" and mean just the same thing.

The Right People
JESUS EMPHASIZES, above all, the kind of people who belong to God's Ideal World. This would be surprising to some modern planners. Communists think that if you can once get a world in which every one has enough to eat and drink and wear, a world where nobody is poor (or everybody is as poor as everybody else, which is all the same thing), you will have the perfect world. Jesus would know this is nonsense. You do not get the perfect world by improving the soil, or the system of government, or the economic system; you do not get it by passing laws of any kind. This does not mean that such things are unimportant—far from it.

But the fact is that even after you got your perfect social system, with perfect politics and perfect distribution of wealth, even a perfect climate and soil, you would still be nowhere near the Ideal World unless you have improved your people.

Is This You
WHAT WE call the "beatitudes" (Matt. 5:7-12) is Jesus' eight-point program for the citizen of the Ideal World. The right people are happy people, to begin with. (The word translated "Blessed" is a regular Greek word for "happy.") But the main difference between different kinds of people is not that some want to be happy while others do not.

Jesus' ideal people are humble, not proud; they see their sins and are sorry for them; they are "meek"—that is, they are not in a hurry to demand their own rights; they do not merely admire goodness, they are positively hungry for it; they are merciful, not careless or cruel; they are pure in heart and not only in speech and act; they are not mere peace-wishers or peace-lovers (who isn't?) but peace-makers; they are people who are brave enough to do what is right.

Salt
DO YOU really want an ideal world? The best way to begin is to learn how to be a citizen of such a world. Jesus uses two interesting simple words to describe the kind of people he means. You are salt, he said,—you are light. Salt and light are old-fashioned things but they have never gone out of date.

So there is no substitute for a really good Christian. Living, here and now, like citizens of the ideal world to come, Christians are both salt and light.

Salt because they give a taste to otherwise flat or bitter life. Salt because they keep human society from going rotten.

Light
AND LIGHT! Like salt, light ought not to be too noticeable. A glaring light is bad on the eyes, as too much salt is bad on the tongue. So a Christian is not supposed to rub his goodness in on other people, so to speak. He is as indispensable as salt in bread—and should be as inconspicuous. But light, like salt, if it is any good has to be applied directly. A strong light concealed in a steel tube does no good. Swishing the glass end of the salt-cellar around in the soup gives it no flavor. The salt must get into the soup, the light must touch what we see.

So the Christian, God's ideal citizen-in-training, can do the world no good by running away from the world.

If a Christian is going to leave this world better than he found it,—even a little bit farther on toward the Ideal World,—he must come into touch with the world, not to imitate it but to change it.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How's Your Listening Time?

Buck Howell and I were in Baltimore last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hogs now or wait.

Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance.

I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked sheepish and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should-of been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping."

From where I sit, that's a good system. Everyone has a right to his opinions—but others have a right to theirs, too—whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of mellow beer or cider. Life's more interesting that way, and hang it if you don't sometimes learn something!

NORTHERN LIGHTS

Roberts Mann, Supt. of Conservation

To a person seeing the Aurora Borealis or "northern light" for the first time, it is an uncanny awe-inspiring spectacle. Sometimes it begins as a glow of red on the northern horizon, ominously suggesting a great fire, gradually changing to a curtain of violet-white or greenish-yellow light extending from east to west. Some times this may be transformed to appear as fold upon fold of luminous draperies that march majestically across the sky; sometimes as a forest of gigantic flaming swords furiously slashing at the heavens; sometimes as a flowing crown with long undulating colored streamers fanning downward and outward.

The brighter auroras are commonly yellowish-green, often tipped with red along the lower edge, but there are many other colors including silver-white, pink, pale to deep reds, blue, violet and violet-gray. There are several light-forms varying from diffuse glows to homogeneous horizontal bands, homogenous arcs, rays, bands and arcs with rays, draperies, coronas and the pulsating forms which only occur at the peak of a display. Rarely, the latter may appear as waves of light rhythmically flashing upward along colored rays to disappear like flames. Some light forms are stationary; others may change slowly or rapidly in position, in brightness, or in color. A bright aurora lights up the landscape about half as much as a full moon, and the displays always follow a certain sequence but do not always begin at the same stage of the sequence because auroras occur in daytime, when they are not seen, and twilight may fall with an aurora in full blast.

A few scientists, who have photographed, measured and studied auroras for many years, tell us that the most brilliant displays coincide with the periods of greatest sunspot activity on the sun, as in 1937 and 1946, appearing more frequently and more strongly in September and March when the earth is most nearly opposite a huge sunspot facing the earth.

Sunspots are tremendous whirlpools or cyclones in the molten or gaseous surface of the sun, increasing and decreasing thru a regular cycle of approximately 11 years, featured by terrific flame-like flare-ups of hot gases spouting forth like streams from a gigantic hose, sometimes for weeks. As the sun revolves, these streams sweep thru space, widening as they travel at hundreds or thousands of miles per second, like water from a rotating lawn sprinkler. If the earth happens to get in the path of such a stream it gets a bath of the electrified particles of gas—recently discovered to be hydrogen. Most of these particles, encountering the invisible magnetic field which envelops the earth, are diverted toward our north and south magnetic poles—which are now about 12 degrees away from the geographical poles of the earth's axis. This explains why the region where northern lights most frequently appear is an elliptical ring passing thru northern Norway, central Hudson Bay and Point Barrow, Alaska; centered about the north magnetic pole and extending much farther south on the American side than in Siberia on the Asiatic side.

The particles of nitrogen and oxygen gases in the ionosphere—which begins at about 50 miles above the earth's surface and extends upward 250 miles or more—bomarded by the electrified particles of solar hydrogen, become luminous and produce the aurora. Never approaching closer than 35 miles this glow may extend as much as 600 miles above the earth. It is at such times that it is seen in Texas and Florida and may extend across the continent. At such times, too, we have magnetic "storms" that disrupt radio, telegraph and telephone communication.

Few people ever see the southern light: the aurora australis. Same difference.

ALASKA GOOD DEAL AFTER ALL

When the United States purchased Alaska from Russia for $7,200,000 in 1867, there was a roar of public disapproval and much inspired oratory in Congress.

Most everyone was convinced that this frozen piece of real estate was good for nothing except the production of snowballs and ice.

However, according to information compiled for the new World Book Encyclopedia, Alaska produced more than 130 million dollars worth of goods in 1948. The production in this single year alone is more than 16 times the original investment.

The 1948 production record of Alaska is: $14,611,200 Minerals; 97,948,832 Salmon; 6,200,000 Fur; 2,000,000 Farm Produce. Total $120,760,735.

MANY SCHOOLS LACK SUPPORT
BECAUSE OF TAX INEQUITIES

Many Schools 2-24 j etain mmm Washington, D. C.—Are the friends of Federal aid-to-education suppressing a story of neglect of schools on the county tax level?

Traditionally, the bulk of school funds comes from local property taxes. The rest comes from the state, whose share in the burden ranges from 1 per cent in Nebraska to 89 per cent in Delaware. In most states it is a 50-50 proposition—but based on what the counties contribute, points out Pathfinder news magazine.

Variation by County

Last fortnight a strange picture was being unveiled in the nation's press on the failure of the counties to do their fair share.

In Richmond, Douglas S. Freeman, Pulitzer prize-winning editor of the News-Leader, charged that in Virginia "there are 44 counties where a man pays less than $60 a year in taxes on real estate worth $10,000."

Citing the results of a survey just completed by Dr. William H. Stauffer, research director of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce, Freeman declared: "If you live in King William County the tax on a house that could be sold under normal conditions for $10,000 is $27. In Amelia County, only 58 miles away, a house of the same value is taxed $138. No wonder some schools are poor."

In Oklahoma City, the Daily Oklahoman reported: "There is more than $100,000,000 in taxable property valuations hidden in Oklahoma counties—77 vials of 'radium' waiting for discovery through equality and re-appraisal of assessments. Each vial is capable of curing local pains for financially sick counties."

One Oklahoma City house, sold recently, for $15,000 was assessed at $3,015. The owner paid a tax of $15, the bulk of which went for schools. A similar house in Tulsa, which also recently sold for $15,000, was likewise assessed ed at $3,000, but the owner paid a tax of $103.32, of which $49.56 went for schools."

"But the case that literally stopped the electrical counting machines in the tax assessor's office," reported Paul Swain in the Oklahoman, "was three tracts in that area were less than one cent, and the machinery balked and would not pick up the index card on the tax rate figure for that area."

Where Blame Belongs

Nor were Oklahoma and Virginia unusual. Instances of county tax inequities—resulting in inadequate support for schools—were being reported recently from almost every state in the Union to the House Committee on Education and Labor, where the new Federal Aid to Education Bill will meet its first legislative test.

Chief evils were: 1. assessments at from 10 per cent to 75 per cent of true value; 2. states' failure to put pressure on counties making little effort to carry their fair tax load; 3. public apathy toward the grossest tax inequities. Asked committee member Ralph W. Gwinn (R. N.Y.): "Is the Federal Government to make this inequity worse by adding hundreds of millions of dollars to an admittedly lop-sided local tax structure?"

Commented the National Education Association's Dr. Frank Hubbard: "What Congressman Gwinn is saying is that human nature is human nature. There are widespread tax inequities on the county level, but are we going to hold up vital assistance to the schools while we correct them? Do we refuse farm subsidies because there are inefficient farmers?"

The trouble with an old-fashioned winter is today's cost of fuel.—Pathfinder.

Ill. Farmers Apply Much Fertilizer

Illinois farmers spread 700,000 tons of rock phosphate, 5,200,000 tons of limestone, 43,000 tons of superphosphate, 10,000 tons of potash, and 300,000 tons of mixed fertilizers on their land during 1948, report Illinois College of Agriculture soils men.

Those are huge tonnages for any state, but this achievement must be speeded up if Illinois soils are to be saved before they are all worn out, states A. U. Thor, head of soil-testing work.

He estimates that more than 1 million acres of cropland were tested in the 68 county soils laboratories and the University laboratory last year. But there are about 26 million acres to be tested. At that rate it will take about 25 years to do the job.

The 68 county soil-testing laboratories serving 75 counties are located at the farm advisors' offices. The 34 counties without a laboratory are served by the College of Agriculture.

Tests are made for acidity, available phosphorus, and available potash for only a small charge. And you get a list of suggestions on the amounts and kinds of fertilizers to use, tips on better soil management practices, and other suggestions.

That way, you'll know exactly what fertilizers to use instead of guessing. Many farmers have saved themselves hundreds of dollars and got the most for their fertilizers' dollars through the county soil-testing laboratories.

Claims for Animals When Killed by Dogs

Claims for animals 1-14 s etain mb When animals are destroyed by dogs an owner may be paid from the county dog license fund. Maximum indemnities are: Sheep or goats, $15 per head; Cattle $75 per head; Horses or mules, $50 per head; Swine $25 per head; Turkeys $5 per head.

To secure the indemnity the owner of the injured livestock must present his claim to the township supervisor and follow a definite procedure prescribed by law. In counties not under township organization, the claim should be presented to a justice of the peace.

The most common instances in which a recovery can be had because of the carelessness of another include: Crippling or killing of animals lawfully on a highway by negligent motorists.

Injuries by railroad engines and trains.

Bloot, death or injury following an escape of animals through a neighbor's poorly kept part of a division fence.

Crippling or killing by careless hunters.

Injury to your animals by a neighbor's trespassing animals.

Vets Should File for Their State Bonus

Illinois veterans of World War II and the next-of-kin of deceased World War II veterans who have failed to file for the state bonus are warned the deadline for filing for this benefit is June 30 of this year.

This warning comes from the Illinois Veterans commission which pointed out that several thousand World War II veterans now residing in the state, and others residing outside of the state, have failed to file for the state bonus.

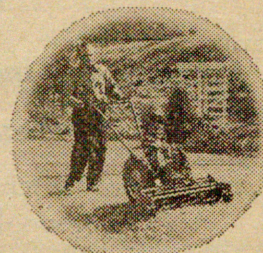

Those eligible to receive the state bonus must have been a resident of Illinois at the time of entry into service; must have served in active duty at any time between September 16, 1940 and September 3, 1945, and must have been honorably separated from the service. Payment is made at the rate of $10 for each month of domestic service and $15 for each month of foreign service. Next-of-kin of those killed in service are receiving a flat payment of $900.

Those eligible who have not filed are urged to do so immediately.

Service officers of the Illinois Veterans Commission will assist any eligible person to make application for the state bonus. The service office in Cook county is located at 13104 S. Western Ave., Blue Island.

HERE'S THE SPRAYER YOU WANT

Automatic ALL-PURPOSE POWER SPRAYER KILL WEEDS - NOT CORN

$16 TO $60 MORE PER ACRE

"2-4-D for corn: Use a maximum of 1/3 pound 2-4-D (actual) per acre as one of the salts when corn is 10 to 20 inches tall. Use low volume of water applied from the side with one or two nozzles per row so as to wet corn leaves as little as possible. 2-4-D will control many weeds too near corn to be taken out by cultivation. Some growers spray and cultivate in one operation." VENETIAN BLINDS

Here's Why...

You can keep your rooms always fresh and lovely with FLEXALUM Venetian Blinds.

They're so much easier to clear, just a simple flex of the slat and "presto" the slat is released... ready for washing.

They're tighter closing for darker rooms, no cords in center of slat to cause unwanted openings.

You can replace damaged slats yourself in a jiffy... just order correct slat size and install in less than a minute.

See the FLEXALUM venetian blind before you buy.
